The purpose of Estonian Tax and Customs Board (ETCB) is to administer state revenues, implement national tax and customs policy and protect society and legal economic activity.

The Estonian Tax and Customs Board operates in the administrative area of the Ministry of Finance.

We are among the four most trustworthy institutions in the country.

About 1,200 people work at the Tax and Customs Board.

We have service bureaus all over Estonia and customs offices at the external border of the EU.

The field of tax and customs can be studied at the Financial College of the Estonian Academy of Security Sciences

Our mission:

Effective tax collection, protection of the Estonian economic environment and society.

Our vision:

We strive for Estonia to become the country with the highest contactless tax compliance in Europe.
